A STATE MAKES APPEAL FOR AID

Northeastern Minnesota Hard Hit by Forest Fires.

CHISHOLM IN FLAMES' PATH

Prosperous City of the Mesaba Range
Encompassed by Raging Forest Fires, Is Powerless to Protect Itself and Inhabitants Are Compelled to Flee, Leaving Their All to the Devouring Flames—Several Mining Towns and Thousands of Acres of Rich Agricultural Region Are Likewise Devastated—Governor Johnson Appeals for Aid.

After destroying the town of Chisholm in northeastern Minnesota on the Mesaba range, and burning over thousands of acres in St. Louis, Carleton and Itasca counties in Minnesota and the northern portion of Douglas county, Wisconsin, the many forest fires which have been raging in these districts have been checked, and if the wind does not spring up again it is not likely that further damage will be great.

When the strong wind which had driven the flames before it in many timbered and agricultural districts subsided, the thousands of homeless people were given a chance to take stock of their belongings and prepare to replace the many burned farms and settlements and the once flourishing town of Chisholm, sixty-five miles north of Duluth.

The subsiding of the wind enabled the inhabitants of Duluth and Nashua to save those towns. Several buildings at the edge of Nashua were burned, but by valiant, all-night work,
the 1,000 miners and citizens prevented the flames from sweeping over the village. The town was entirely surrounded by a wall of fire and its escape from obliteration was remarkable. There is little timber adjacent to Duluth, and although forest fires completely surrounded the village, the 600 inhabitants had only to extinguish the incipient flames started by falling brands to protect the village.

Chisholm presents a scene of ruin and desolation. Blackened piles of charred wood, little heaps of gray ashes stirred by the fitful breeze, scorched skeletons of brick and mortar, comprise what was one of the most flourishing towns in the great Mesaba iron range.

The only remaining buildings are the new $125,000 high school, the grade school, the Catholic church, the Italian church and a dozen dwellings in the southernmost parts of the town. The damage to property is estimated at $1,000,000 and to personal property at three-quarters of a million dollars.

Hibbing, five miles west of Chisholm, afforded accommodations to about 4,000 refugees from Chisholm.
The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern
started a car of tents from Duluth for Hibbing on receipt of a message from Mayor Welrick. W. A. McGonagle, vice president and general manager of the road, said he would rush tents and supplies if necessary to Hibbing as fast as needed, and a white city has sprung up on the environs of Hibbing.
Foodstuffs will not be needed, as the merchants have large supplies and an order from Duluth has been placed for what is needed.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS

Nevada Mining Town of Rawhide
Swept by Flames.

Rawhide, Nev., Sept. 9.—Three thousand people homeless, a score or more injured and property loss of over $750, 000 is the result of a disastrous fire which started in the Rawhide Drug company's building. Fanned by a gale, the fire swept rapidly south and east
to Balloon avenue and up Rawhide avenue to within fifty yards of the People's hospital.

Over a ton and a half of dynamite
was used in demolishing buildings, which in a measure stayed the flames' progress. The volunteer fire department and 500 miners worked heroically, but on account of the incendible construction of the buildings, they were swept away like tinder. The business portion of Rawhide is a mass of ruins.

Young Boy's Horrid Confession.
Luisa, Ky., Sept. 9.—Alonso Kelly, fifteen years of age, has made a confession to the sheriff and prosecuting attorney implicating John Sproux in the burning of the home of Charles Cooper in Lawrence county, near this place. Two small children were burned to death. Mr. Cooper will probably die and Mrs. Cooper and another child were disfigured for life as the result of the act of incendiarism, which was committed on the night of Aug. 20.
Sproux, who is a man of middle age,
was removed from the county for safe keeping some days ago, a mob forming soon after he was arrested as a suspect. Young Kelly credits Sproux with the leadership in the crime,
which was the outgrowth of a neighborhood quarrel.

Matters of Current Interest
to Kentuckians.

THE STATE NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

Here Are Found Accurately Detailed
the Happenings of the Largest Import Which Are Attracting Attention Throughout Kentucky.

Murray, Ky., Sept. 9.—Mistaking her for a night rider, John Franklin Dalton, residing on the Tennessee river, shot and killed his bride. They heard prowlers and got up to investigate.
Dalton told her to go back to bed and he went into the yard. She stepped out the back door just as he reached a shadow at the side of the house. He fired, the bullet crashing through her brain.

CANTRILL FOR CONGRESS

Head of Kentucky Society of Equity
Named in Ashland District.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 9.—James Campbell Cantrill of Georgetown was nominated by the Democrats of the Seventh congressional district to succeed W. P. Kimball of Fayette county, the present incumbent, who was also a candidate for renomination. A bolting convention of 34 of the 104 delegates participating nominated Frank Johnson of Franklin county after offering the nomination to Kimball, who declined it, saying he had always been regular in his party allegiance and did not desire to undo the record of a lifetime.

Cantrill is president of the Kentucky Society of Equity, is a farmer and an ardent advocate of the poolers of tobacco in the white burley district. The Seventh is the famous old "Ashland district," represented in years gone by by such eminent men as Henry Clay and W. C. P. Breckenridge.

NEW LAW INVOKED

Kentucky Tobacco Buyers Find Themselves in Trouble.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 9.—Promoters of the Equity Society are making trouble for violators of the anti-selling tobacco agreement in Kentucky. In Owen county Florian Gray sold a half interest in his crop of tobacco, which the Hurley Tobacco Society claims is pooled. He and his brother Grover were arrested and held over to the grand jury. The purchasers of the tobacco, T. T. Vallandigham and Lan-drum Fortner were arraigned on a charge of buying the pooled tobacco.
They, too, were held to the grand jury.
It is the first instance in Kentucky where the new Cravens law has been invoked against buyers. Vallandigh-am and Fortner claim that they did not know the tobacco was pooled.

Moonshiners Arrested.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 9.—United States Marshal W. M. Mays has arrived here with five moonshiners to await the action of the federal court.
Marshal Mays told of the destruction of three of the most notorious illicit still sites in the Kentucky mountains. Information connecting seventeen others with the sale of the illicit brew was secured, which will result in indictments. Marshal Mays says that several among these are young girls who openly sold moonshine whisky on the roadside on their way to school.

Kentucky Mob Disappointed.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 9.—A mob of 200 persons, some of them masked, visited the county jail here at night, demanding John Sprouse, accused of burning the residence and two children of Charles Cooper at Cherokee, several days ago. Anticipating a call from a mob, the sheriff had a few hours before transferred the prisoner to Catlettsburg. The members of the mob were permitted to search the jail to verify the jailer's statement.

Meeting of Stockholders.

Louisville, Sept. 9.—At a meeting of the Henderson railroad stockholders
the following officers and directors
were elected: Directors, Attila Cox, Milton H. Smith, W. L. Mapother, J.
H. Ellis, Harry Weissinger, Otto Maix, W. Marshall Bullitt, Oscar Fenley and vice president, W. L. Mapother; secretary, Ridley Carne, and treasurer,

L. W. Botts.

Hargis Trial Goes to Estill County, Jackson, Ky., Sept. 9.—The trial of Beech Hargis for the murder of his father, Judge James Hargis, will be held in Estill county, Judge Adams transferring the case to that county.
The commonwealth had objected to the trial's taking place in Jackson, asserting that a fair trial could not be had. A motion for bail in behalf of Beech Hargis will be made by his attorneys.

Victim Only Aided Thieves.

Medora, Ill., Sept. 9.—Stephen Day, a politician, hung lighted lanterns in his orchard to frighten away thieves.
He awoke to find he had furnished light by which they could strip the darkest corner. He kicked the lanterns to pieces.

Peter J. Schollert, a St. Paul pioneer,

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For County Court Clerk.

We are authorized to announce G. T. JOHNSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce FELIX BOWMAN as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR JAILER

We are authorized to announce CAM MULLINS as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce W. A. TAYLOR as a candidate for Jailer of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR ASSESSOR

We are authorized to announce W. H. BAKER as a candidate for Assessor of Rockcastle County, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The Philadelphia Record thinks that the Democratic campaign committee could not make better use of James Wallace Van Cleave's partisan effusions than to circulate them widely among the workmen of the country. None know better than workmen that Van Cleave and many of his allies in the National Manufacturers' Association (near relation to American Protective Tariff League) are the inveterate foes of organized labor in its efforts to better its conditions. This was seen in the fury with which Van Cleave and his associates fought against the Employers' liability bill in the last session of Congress, and in the cunning way which their attorneys in congress so mutilated the measure as to destroy most of its value. Why asks Mr. Bryan if you are so friendly to labor, as you profess, in a warfare against a measure for protecting workmen against the consequences of the neglect and cupidity of employers? To this there is no answer. But to flatter workmen he tells them that the laborer today may be the employer of tomorrow. Very likely, though no thanks for it are due to Mr. Van Cleave and his kind. The hundreds of thousands of workmen who are thrown out of employment by a tariff policy of which he is a selfish beneficiary will find small comfort in the distant prospect that he holds out to them.

Mr. Bryan is well pleased with the prospects for Democratic success this fall, but urges the importance of every Democrat doing his part. One thing specially mentioned by Mr. Bryan is the organization of clubs in every precinct, through the United States. In many of the states and many of the counties in this state steps along this line have already been taken and we believe it about time something is doing in old Rockcastle.

Manchester, Ky., Sept. 7.—A petition is being circulated in the mountains for the pardon of W. S. Taylor, Charles Finley and John L. Powers. It is as follows: To His Excellency the Governor of Kentucky, Frankfort, Ky.: Whereas, W. S. Taylor, Charles Finley and John L. Powers have been refugees from their state and homes for more than eight years charged with complicity in a conspiracy murder of the late Senator Goebel and denied there liberty or the right to give bail, and Whereas It has become manifest that no such conspiracy ever existed, but that Henry Yonts, alone, was guilty of the crime, and, Whereas, Kentucky's business and civic interests demand the final and immediate elimination of all the agitation and animosities growing out of the Goebel tragedy, and, Whereas, The matter has fortunately, to a great extent, ceased to be a partisan or political issue and the whole people have, with practical unanimity, accepted the pardon of Powers and Howard as wise, and a step in the interest of peace and good will among all classes of citizens, and,

Whereas, We believe that a trial of either of these men, under the circumstances would be a mockery of justice, and that it would renew the agitations and animosities, which were partly obliterated by the pardon of Powers and Howard, and that no possible good can come from such a trial.

Wherefore, we your petitioners, and citizens of Clay county, Kentucky, do most respectfully petition your excellency to immediately exercise your prerogative by granting to each of these men a full and free pardon, that they may return to their respective homes and friends and enjoy the liberty and peace to which every free man is entitled, and which has been wrongfully denied these men for more than eight years.

TO OPEN THE CAMPAIGN.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 5
Kentucky Republicans will open their campaign in this State in every county on September 21. This engagement will be all along the line and it is probable that Gov. Wilson will be one of the speakers. The opening in Louisville will be during the State Fair, when it is expected that a large meeting will be held and Senator W. O. Bradley will be the chief speaker.

Congressman D. C. Edwards was in Frankfort last week arranging for State officials to take the stump and announced that the date of the opening would be September 21. It is planned to have some good speaker at every county in the state on that date, and it will be the beginning of a general speaking campaign which the Republicans of Kentucky will conduct. Dr. Ben L. Bruner will speak at Scottsville, opening the campaign in the Third District for James.

State officials here are really talking like they actually believe that the Republican ticket has a chance to win this fall in Kentucky. Frank P. James, State Auditor, Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Secretary of State, and others, are saying that they will certainly carry Kentucky for Taft by as large a majority as the Republican ticket had last year.

Whether they believe this or not is a question, but they are talking that way. Mr. Edwards, being chairman of the speakers bureau of the Republican Campaign Committees, naturally is saying that the Taft ticket is going to carry the State. It would not do for him to say anything else. Gov. Wilson has not been given any speaking dates as yet, but it is understood that he will take the stump this fall and will make several speeches. He may even go outside the State to speak, and is certain to be heard a dozen places inside the State.

William J. Bryan conferred Tuesday with members of the Democratic National Committee in Chicago, and last night addressed a body of 1,200 Democratic precinct committeemen. Mr. Bryan urged the formation of clubs, and declared the outlook was bright for party victory. With proper organization, said, he was confident of success. Mr. Bryan will speak today at the Illinois Democratic Convention in Peoria. The forty-two stand-pat Republicans in the Iowa Legislature Tuesday prevented the election of Gov. A. B. Cummins as United States Senator to succeed the late William B. Allison. Sixty-five Republicans voted for Cummins.

FOUND BODY IN TRUNK

Boston Police Arrest Actor on Charge of Wife Murder.

Boston, Sept. 9.—Chester Jordan aged twenty-nine years, of 509 Medford street, Somerville, has been arrested by Boston officers on the charge of having murdered his wife, whose body, minus the head, was discovered in a trunk at 7 Hancock street, Boston. The police state the murder was committed two days ago.

It develops that the body was not only beheaded but dismembered before it was placed in the trunk, which Jordan intended to take with him on the steamer Harvard when she left Boston Wednesday night for New York. The Harvard, however, did not sail on account of an accident, and a hackman who handled the trunk became suspicious that it contained stolen plunder and notified the police. A search revealed the dismembered body, and early last evening Jordan was arrested. The police say he admitted the crime. Jordan is an actor and his wife was also connected with the stage.

According to Jordan's confession, he accidentally killed his wife Tuesday night in a quarrel at their home, and, becoming desperate over what he had done, he went out and bought a butcher knife and hacksaw, cut up the body and placed the remains in a trunk. He then planned to take the steamer Harvard for New York and throw the parts of the body overboard.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 9.—Colonel Henry M. Nevius of Red Bank, N. J., was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The election occurred on the first ballot, which Mr. Nevius 454 votes compared with 254 for former Governor Van Sant of Minnesota, and 90 for L. T. Dickson of Illinois. On motion of the former Minnesota executive the nomination of the New Jersey man was made unanimous. Other officers were chosen as follows: Senior vice commander, J. Kent Hamilton of Ohio; Junior vice commander, C. C. Royce of California; chaplain-in-chief, J. F. Spence of Tennessee; surgeon-in-chief, G. Lane Tanshill of Maryland.

Colonel Nevius, a native of New Jersey, was studying law with the late Russell A. Alger of Michigan when the war broke out, and enlisted from the state with the Lincoln cavalry. Young Nevius rose to a commission with the Seventh Michigan and the Twenty-fifth New York cavalry regiments, and lost an arm in front of Fort Stevens when the Union army was engaged with General Early. Colonel Nevius, besides being twice department commander of New Jersey, has been a judge and president of the New Jersey state senate.

After the installation of the newly elected national officers, the G. A. R. delegates decided upon Salt Lake City as the next meeting place. The Woman's Relief Corps elected Mrs. W. L. Gillman of Roxbury, Mass., president.

Drouth Leads to Tragedy.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 9.—Angered because Alexander Chrisman permitted another neighbor to draw water from a well which supplied the neighborhood at St. Marys, John Smith shot and almost instantly killed Chrisman. The wounded man fell across the well platform. Smith was arrested. Owing to the dry weather several families were compelled to get their water supply from the well on Chrisman's lot. Smith, who lives next door, objected when a man who had not been coming to the well called and asked for water. Chrisman gave consent and after some heated words Smith whipped out a revolver and shot.

Little Business to Transact.

Keynote speeches were made by Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, permanent chairman of the convention, and by Leslie M. Shaw, former secretary of the treasury.

Senator "Bob" Taylor, of Tennessee, who use to be known as "Fiddling Bob," says after a trip through Texas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and Indiana that it is his deliberate judgment that things look brighter this year for Bryan than they ever looked for Cleveland in either 1884 or 1892. Judging by the way people talk, he feels confident that Indiana is going Democratic. in Christian character, enabling he young people thus helped to become a blessing not only to the community in which they live but to the nation as a whole. for the nation's safeguard is in its Christian citizens and may we not claim, even more, in its educated Christian housekeepers?

Let us all encourage our young people to take advantage of these opportunities.

The scholarship examination, Sept. 3rd, was very well attended, but nearly all of the twenty three contestants were from Mt. Vernon.

While we were glad to see so many taking an interest, we were sorry so few of the precincts of the county were represented.

Excellent work was done by most of those who entered, the general average being 82 1/4 per cent. Eight out of the twenty three had no misspelled word in any of the papers handed in.

Such creditable showing is deserving of special mention. We were sorry to be able to give a scholarship to each contestant. All were successful in that they made the effort and did there best. All honest effort carries with it its own reward.

Those receiving scholarships are Ina Davis McCoy, Jennie Morrow Miller, Ethel Davis, John D. Heuderson, Bernice Landrum, with a few still under consideration.

CASH WHEAT.

Various developments that tended to send wheat prices booming appeared last week, and as a result September made a net gain of 3/8c, December 3/4c and May 3/8c. Wheat started its ascent Tuesday morning, when the shorts in September when the victims of a gentle but firm application of the "squeeze process" administered by the Armour people who are said to control the cash wheat.

A few of the best posted brokers advanced the opinion that the Armour house was taking advantage of the small supply of contract wheat in this market to engineer a deal that may prove distressing to the shorts. Deliveries on September contracts were only 325,000 bushels. The wheat was put out by several leading houses, and some of it changed hands many times. It was the popular impression that Armour would secure control of the bulk of it eventually.

The congestion in September wheat, due to the heavy purchases by the Armour interest, became acute and an excited movement on the part of the shorts, who had become frightened, sent the price up in a lively manner. The reluctance of a good many shorts to believe that an attempt would be made to engineer a "squeeze" at the height of the crop-moving period, made it all the more possible to carry out that programme.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

Women imagine that old men sit and sigh for lost loves, but it is nearer the truth that they are sighing over wasted dollars.

Men would bear their burdens with better nature if they thought they had a square deal. No man thinks he gets this.

Rheumatic Pains relieved by use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. 25 doses 25 cts.

Why Suffer?

If you suffer from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—and leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We are never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 15, were always subject to sick headache until we began using these pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with phlebotomy on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept."

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Abdul Hamid, sultan of Turkey is a strange mixture of bravery and cowardice, cunning and simplicity. So much has been written that to obtain anything like an accurate idea of his real character is almost impossible. Like most autocratic monarchs he goes about in hourly dread of assassination, and it is said that he spends as much as $500 a night to have his bedroom securely guarded. The Sultan's mistrust of his subjects has some times led to curious results. A few years ago he was on his way to the mosque, when he suddenly noticed that some new telegraph wires had been stretched across the roadway. No one to this day knows what he thought would happen, but he gave orders for a royal procession to halt and messengers were sent off post haste to the telegraph company to fetch men to cut down the wires. After considerable delay this was actually done, and then the Sultan and his retinue proceeded on their way. Not content with merely having the wires destroyed, Abdul Hamid also commanded that they were on no account to be replaced.

The Sultan's love of ruling was once exemplified in an extraordinary manner. He had purchased a parrot, of which he grew very fond and he spent many hours in teaching it to speak. The was an apt pupil and learned to imitate its master's voice to perfection. One day the parrot was hanging in its cage in the Sultan's private apartment when it suddenly called out the name of His Majesty's favorite attendant. The latter came at the summons, but Abdul Hamid flew into a towering passion. Tearing the unfortunate bird from its cage, he killed it on the spot; then, turning to the frightened servant he said: "Understand that in future only my voice shall command here!"

But Abdul Hamid has a softer and altogether nobler side to his character and those who know him intimately have spoken eloquently of his kindness. His own dread of physical pain has made him thoughtful of the welfare of others, and he has had a hospital built which is kept up entirely at his own expense. This hospital is principally for the use of women and children, but anyone is eligible for admission and every patient is treated entirely free of charge. Even foreigners and strangers are admitted and the whole concern is run on the most up-to-date lines. —Chicago News.

After the second bottle I showed improvement, and five bottles cured me completely. I have since passed a rigid examination for life insurance." Foley's Kidney Remedy cures backache and all forms of kidney and bladder trouble.

PLANTS AS ANIMALS.

SON OF CHARLES DARWIN SAYS THEY HAVE MEMORY, HABITS AND MOODS.

Francis Darwin, son of the author of "The Origin of Species" and who delivered the Presidential address at the opening of the British Association at Dublin to day is the first botanical President at the association's annual meetings for 40 years. Few more imaginative and more original speeches have been delivered from the Presidential chair that his, though the scientific audience shook their heads.

Mr. Darwin says he appeared as the champion of a lost cause—the doctrine of the inheritance of acquired characters.

His arguments was that plants must be classed as animals in a way they respond to touch. He advanced proof to show that plants have memory, can develop habits, and behave differently according to; what we may call their mood. He went so far in fact, as to argue that there is in plants something that corresponds very nearly to the nervous system in animals, and he asserted that plants are quite as sensitive to certain agencies as animals, and quite as capable of telegraphing from one part of the organism to another.

"We must believe," Mr. Darwin says, "that in plants there exists a faint copy of what we call consciousness in ourselves."

Growth itself, in his view, was a sort of habit, made possible by memory in the cells, so that growth could be changed at any period of progress by the surroundings, if not by a sort of free will. These changes in growth are remembered by successive generations, and in this way, among the plants and lower animals. At any rate, acquired characters not only can, but must be inherited, if that is to have any meaning.

A PAYING INVESTMENT.

Last winter I tried many advertised remedies, but the cough continued until I bought a 50c. bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery; before that was half gone, the cough was all gone. This winter the same happy result has followed: a few doses once more banished the annual cough. I am now convinced that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best of all cough and lung remedies." CASH WHEAT.

Various developments that tended to send wheat prices booming appeared last week, and as a result September made a net gain of 3/8c, December 3/4c and May 3/8c. Wheat started its ascent Tuesday morning, when the shorts in September when the victims of a gentle but firm application of the "squeeze process" administered by the Armour people who are said to control the cash wheat.

A few of the best posted brokers advanced the opinion that the Armour house was taking advantage of the small supply of contract wheat in this market to engineer a deal that may prove distressing to the shorts. Deliveries on September contracts were only 525,000 bushels. The wheat was put out by several leading houses, and some of it changed hands many times. It was the popular impression that Armour would secure control of the bulk of it eventually.

The congestion in September wheat, due to the heavy purchases by the Armour interest, became acute and an excited movement on the part of the shorts, who had become frightened, sent the price up in a lively manner. The reluctance of a good many shorts to believe that an attempt would be made to engineer a "squeeze" at the height of the crop-moving period, made it all the more possible to carry out that programme.

SUNFLOWER PHILOSOPHY.

Women imagine that old men sit and sigh for lost loves, but it is nearer the truth that they are sighing over wasted dollars.

Men would bear their burdens with better nature if they thought they had a square deal. No man thinks he gets this.

It looks as if 50 years from now children will be sung to sleep by some one turning on the phonograph, into which mother sang before going off to her bridge whist.

"The ignorance of the people supports the world," said a picture frame dealer to a reporter this morning, as he proceeded to put a $3 frame on a thirty-cent picture.

A girl doesn't mind being caught without a cent, but she is embarrassed beyond measure when she is compelled to admit that she has no handkerchief with her.

Foley's Orino Laxative is a new remedy, an improvement on the laxatives of former years, as it does not gripe or nauseate and is pleasant to take. It is guaranteed by Chas. C. Davis.

Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it—and leave no bad after-effects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We are never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 15, were always subject to sick headache until we began using these pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crazy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with pleurisy on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept."

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Abdul Hamid, sultan of Turkey is a strange mixture of bravery and cowardice, cunning and simplicity. So much has been written that to obtain anything like an accurate idea of his real character is almost impossible. Like most autocratic monarchs he goes about in hourly dread of assassination, and it is said that he spends as much as $900 a night to have his bedroom securely guarded. The Sultan's mistrust of his subjects has some times led to curious results. A few years ago he was on his way to the mosque, when he suddenly noticed that some new telegraph wires had been stretched across the roadway. No one to this day knows what he thought would happen, but he gave orders for the royal procession to halt and messengers were sent off post haste to the telegraph company to fetch men to cut down the wires. After considerable delay this was actually done, and then the Sultan and his retinue proceeded on their way. Not content with merely having the wires destroyed, Abdul Hamid also commanded that they were on no account to be replaced.

The Sultan's love of ruling was once exemplified in an extraordinary manner. He had purchased a parrot, of which he grew very fond and he spent many hours in teaching it to speak. The was an apt pupil and learned to imitate its august master's voice to perfection. One day the parrot was hanging in its cage in the Sultan's private apartment when it suddenly called out the name of His Majesty's favorite attendant. The latter came at the summons, but Abdul Hamid flew into a towering passion. Tearing the unfortunate bird from its cage, he killed it on the spot; then, turning to the frightened servant he said: "Understand that in future only my voice shall command here!"

But Abdul Hamid has a softer and altogether nobler side to his character and those who know him intimately have spoken eloquently of his kindness. His own dread of physical pain has made him thoughtful of the welfare of others, and he has had a hospital built which is kept up entirely at his own expense. This hospital is principally for the use of women and children, but anyone is eligible for admission and every patient is treated entirely free of charge. Even foreigners and strangers are admitted and the whole concern is run on the most up-to-date lines. —Chicago News.
